

LONG TREK FINISHED LOST BALLOONISTS ENGAGE IN FIGHT

Lieutenant Farrell Lands on Lieutenant Hinton's Jaw for Alleged Statements in Letter—Says That He Could Have Licked 'em Both and That He Can Do it Now

(By The Associated Press)
MATTICE, Ont., Jan. 11.—The long trek to civilization of the three American naval balloonists came to a dramatic climax here this afternoon when two of them—Lieutenants Farrell and Hinton—came to blows over statements alleged to have been made by the latter in a letter to his wife.

When they emerged from the bush at 2:20 o'clock after a sixteen day's journey from the Hudson Bay Company's post at Moose Factory, near where they descended, Dec. 14, the aeronauts bound in a tie of friendship thru their facing together of death, apparently were inseparable.

An hour later Lieutenant Farrell sat in the parlor of the log cabin home of H. P. Williamson, clerk in the Hudson Bay Company's store here, relating the story of the party's adventures to newspapermen.

During the conversation Lieutenant Farrell was shown copies of news dispatches, among them a letter alleged to have been sent by Hinton to his wife, and published in a New York newspaper, which said in part:

“Mr. Farrell fell from exhaustion several times. Wanted us to cut his throat and take his body for food and asked us to go on. Let him die, but we decided to stick and die together. I was the only one that did not express my feelings and kept them cheered up.”

Hinton then came into the room. He told Farrell he should not continue his talk to newspapermen as he had dispatches from the secretary of the navy forbidding any of them to talk until an official report had been filed.

“You rat, you have been talking yourself,” Farrell snapped back indignantly. He then accused Hinton of writing false reports, referring to the letter.

Hinton replied that the letter had been published without his consent, but that its contents had been exaggerated. Farrell then went into another room to apologize to Mrs. Williamson for his language. While he was gone, it is said, Hinton declared his remark about exaggeration was made only for Farrell's benefit.

Farrell returned. More words passed between the officers. Then Farrell took off his coat and struck Hinton on the jaw. Hinton was sent sprawling over a table. At this juncture newspapermen and others in the room stepped between the men. The men left the cabin separately and went to a special train waiting on a siding to take them to Cocanore.

Farrell claimed that he had been “able crossed” in regard to the writing of letters for publication. Farrell said:

“I wrote a letter to Frank Reed, commissioner of contracts of New York and he (Hinton) asked me to write on it that it was not to be published.”

He added that Reed was an intimate friend and evidently had done as he requested. He said he thought Hinton and Kloor wrote their letters under the same agreement. The balloonists will remain here until tomorrow afternoon as guests of W. B. Way, divisional superintendent of the Canadian National Railway, whose private car has been placed at their disposal.

The time of departure has not been announced.

Enroute to New York the party will make only one stop, Toronto, where they will be guests of Mayor Church and the Rotary Club of Toronto at luncheon. They will arrive in Toronto about 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon.

Lieutenant Farrell said tonight that there was a great deal of “quibbling” among his companions and himself during the three days they were lost in the woods above Moose factory. He claimed he was in better physical condition than either of his comrades and at night he would lie on the exposed side of Hinton to keep him warm.

“Says He Could Lick 'em Both.” As a matter of fact, Farrell continued, “I could have licked both of them and could do it now in this room.”

Farrell said he held no grudge against Kloor who, during the days in the bush he said, had remarked that he didn't want to die, as he had “too much to live for.”

The party left Moose Factory December 28 instead of December 27 as they had intended.

During the first three days travelling down the Missinabi all three officers rode on the sleds because they still were fatigued from their earlier experiences, Farrell said.

When they felt fully rested, he said, they took turns in pushing along with the Indians. They had been initiated into the secrets of the snow shoe while

HARDING IS NOW UNCERTAIN AS TO CABINET PERSONNEL

Hughes is the Only One Who is Considered Seriously

MAYOR THOMPSON OFFERS HIS AID

(By The Associated Press)
MARION, O., Jan. 11.—President-elect Harding's cabinet selections now hinge upon so many uncertain elements that some of his confidants believe he may postpone the announcement of all but one appointment until just before inauguration. The one place regarded as most likely to be scratched off the doubtful list in the near future is that of Secretary of State for which Charles Evans Hughes, of New York, still is said to be the uppermost in Mr. Harding's mind. It is understood, however, that no definite word has reached here that Mr. Hughes will accept and so that appointment, too, may be delayed.

Regarding all the other portfolios in the cabinet the president-elect still is collecting opinions and is receiving all sorts of counsel. Two of the appointments which he is said to have seriously considered announcing early in the New Year are those of secretary of the treasury, and secretary of agriculture were involved in conferences he held today.

Mayor William Hale Thompson of Chicago, who has been quoted as vigorously opposing the suggested appointment of Charles C. Darrow, of New York, as secretary of the treasury, was one of those who talked cabinet with Mr. Harding during the day.

Afterwards Mr. Thompson would mention no names and said the cabinet talk had been more or less general.

Thompson Offers Aid.

The Chicago mayor declared he had come to Marion primarily to tender what aid he could to the president-elect. He said there had been only passing mention of the Illinois political situation, in which he has been a storm center, and that he had assured Mr. Harding that local factional differences would not be permitted to affect the loyalty of Illinois republicans to the administration.

Appointment of a secretary of agriculture was discussed by the president-elect with Charles Barrett of Georgia, president of the Farmers' Union and said to be a supporter of Henry Wallace of Iowa, for the place. Mr. Barrett also gave advice regarding an agricultural policy.

With Dr. Jacob Gould Schurman, former president of Cornell University, Mr. Harding talked over at length his plan for an association of nations. Confidence that it would prove of practical value was expressed by Dr. Schurman, who said he believed no one had so correctly interpreted the aspirations of the American people as had the president-elect.

Another caller today was R. H. Creager of Brownsville, Texas, who is a close personal friend of Mr. Harding and who has been mentioned often as a possible ambassador to Mexico under the coming administration. Mr. Creager brought from the border an encouraging picture of Mexican affairs, declaring President Obregon seemed in a fair way to re-establish stability throughout the southern republic.

The Mexican situation is being watched closely by President-elect Harding and some of those in his confidence being that a recognition of the new Mexican government may be one of his first acts as president.

MINISTERS ASK PARDON FOR INNS

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 11.—Pardon for Thomas Inns, serving a 17 year sentence in the Joliet penitentiary for the murder of a Chicago minister, before the pardon board, Sam Siracusa, an Italian sentenced for life for his participation in the famous “Black Hollow” murder in LaSalle county in 1913 also asked for clemency.

Inns, formerly a Chicago church janitor, was convicted in June, 1917, for the murder of Louis Libenstein, a diamond salesman after turning state's evidence. His two accomplices were acquitted. Siracusa and four other Italians were convicted of murdering Elmore West and B. J. Dierks, payroll messengers for the Black Hollow mine.

The injured, including three women were hurt in leaping from second story windows. Life nets were spread by firemen, but in the smoke and darkness several were hurt when they missed the nets. Police say the iron fire escape collapsed after a few persons had used it to escape.

12 YEAR OLD GIRL TELLS WEIRD STORIES

Rockford, Ill., Jan. 11.—Weird stories of how she had been robbed by a dark man wearing a false moustache, lost consciousness and found herself on a train were related to the police today by Florence Kingsball, who gave her age as 12 years, and home as 2233 West Thirtieth street, Chicago. Authorities decided she was a runaway who had been reading too many kidnapping stories and have notified her parents.

ADOPTS MANAGER PLAN OF GOVERNMENT

Rapid City, S. D., Jan. 11.—Rapid City adopted the manager plan of government by a vote of 587 to 276 at the special election held yesterday. This will be the first city in South Dakota to have its affairs conducted in this manner.

The proposition was previously defeated.

HARDING TO TAKE OATH OF OFFICE IN SENATE CHAMBER

All Other Ceremonies Planned Will Be IN SENATE CHAMBER

WILL INVOLVE NO EXPENSE

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—President-elect Harding will take oath of office in the senate chamber and all outside ceremonies planned at the capitol and elsewhere will be abandoned according to a decision reached today by the joint congressional inaugural committee.

After considering Senator Harding's request for a simple inaugural the congressional committee canceled plans for outside plans for outside ceremonies at the capitol and elsewhere will be abandoned according to a decision reached today by the joint congressional inaugural committee.

The committee it was said did not favor Senator Harding's suggestion for having the ceremonies on the capitol steps but decided instead upon the senate chamber. President Taft took the oath of office in the senate chamber twelve years ago but only because of inclement weather.

The following telegram to Senator Harding was made public by Senator Knox:

“The joint committee on inauguration have received your telegram transmitted thru me as chairman dated January 10, 1921, indicating your desire for extreme simplicity in the inaugural ceremonies on the fourth of next March and the same shall be conducted practically without expense.”

The committee has considered your suggestion in the spirit in which it was made and has decided that if no such agreement could be obtained from the powers, the United States should build the “greatest navy in the world.”

Asked by Chairman Butler if Great Britain's geographic situation did not entitle that nation to command of the seas, Mr. Daniels stated that he did not subscribe to this belief.

“The United States has the longest coast line,” said the naval secretary and has Alaska, Hawaii, Guam and the Philippines to protect as well as a moral obligation in South America under the Monroe doctrine. We are entitled to the largest navy in the world if there is no international agreement.

The pending Foran resolution proposing a 5 percent reduction in naval programs for the next five years, in the United States, Great Britain and Japan, was opposed by Mr. Daniels on the grounds that it would leave this country second in naval strength and did not take into consideration armed land forces.

Chairman Butler asked Mr. Daniels to present to the committee tomorrow data showing the naval construction and projected programs of Japan and Great Britain.

Asks What Others Are Doing. “I want to know what these nations are doing,” said the committee chairman. “All the world knows what the United States is doing. I hear that Great Britain is building great submarines each mounting a 13-inch gun. Perhaps they have abandoned building big ships because they have found a better way of destroying life and property.”

“I also if it is true that Japan is having three big battle cruisers built in British yards.”

Mr. Daniels replied that it was his understanding that three large Japanese war vessels and a number of submarines were being built in their ship yards and promised to furnish the other data when the committee meets again tomorrow. All members of the committee seemed to be in accord on the proposition of finding some way to reduce armaments but there was a very evident lack of unanimity of opinion as to the proper method to be pursued.

Discussion of the question will be resumed tomorrow, when General Tasker H. Bliss, former chief of staff of the army may appear.

ITALIAN FOUND MURDERED IN ROOM

O'CALLAGHAN CASE HAS BEEN REFERRED TO PRESIDENT WILSON

Will be Asked to Decide On His Deportation

DEPARTMENTS CAN'T AGREE

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Decision as to the deportation of Lord Mayor O'Callaghan of Cork who arrived in Newport News last week, as a stowaway without a passport, is referred today to President Wilson.

The president was called upon to decide between the position of Acting Secretary Davis of the state department, who has insisted on exclusion of the lord mayor from the United States for attempting to enter without a passport, and the Secretary of Labor Wilson, who has refused to acknowledge jurisdiction of the state department until the case has been formally presented to it by the labor department.

Departments Can't Agree. With the labor department declining to recognize the jurisdiction of the state department and the state department insisting upon its right to order the deportation of O'Callaghan under war-time powers conferred upon the president and his executive agent, the secretary of state, officers of the labor department stated the case had reached an impasse calling for the intervention of the president.

Secretary Wilson is known to be willing to abide by any disposition which the president is prepared to make of the case and is prepared to enter an order for his deportation immediately if that course should be indicated by President Wilson.

Upon the conclusion of the cabinet meeting however, Secretary Wilson declined to make any statement, altho it was indicated that an announcement might be made tomorrow by the labor department.

HOG ISLAND PIKER COMPARED TO MUSCLE SHOALS SAYS KENYON

Are Spending $100,000,000 And Getting Nothing

SMOOT SAYS IT IS CAMOUFLAGE

(By The Associated Press)
Island is a piker compared to Muscle Shoals,” Senator Kenyon, republican, Iowa, declared today in the senate in opposing the bill authorizing a government corporation to operate the great federal nitrate plant in Alabama.

“We are spending $100,000,000 and getting nothing,” the senator said. “If it would help smash the fertilizer trust I would favor it, but it won't. If it would aid the farmers, I would favor it, but I do not believe it will.”

Gonna Differ. A different view was expressed by Chairman Grona, of the agriculture committee, who said the farmers of every state needed cheaper fertilizers. “He added that the use of fertilizer would increase the production of wheat which averaged very lower.”

The senator, however, proposed amendments which he said would safeguard the plant from falling into the hands of fertilizer or explosives manufacturers.

Senator Pomerene, Democrat, Ohio, said that before he voted for the measure he wanted to know whether “I'm giving the farmers fertilizer or a gold brick.”

Senator Smoot, Republican, Utah, declared the measure was “camouflage pure and simply.”

“Don't vote for believing it will give cheap fertilizer to the farmer because it will not,” he told Senator Pomerene. “It's only a waterpower proposition.”

JURY STILL OUT IN MURDER CASE

MONROE, Mich., Jan. 11.—After deliberating more than eight hours without agreeing on a verdict indications at 11 o'clock tonight were that the jury in the first degree murder case of Albert Sherman would be locked up for the night.

Sherman was charged with slaying Walter Gilroy and Maurice Drouillard in a sectarian riot at the Wesleyan Methodist church, near here, June 28, last, when a mob attacked the church and was fired upon by special deputy sheriffs of which Sherman was one.

MRS. MAC SWINEY ARRIVES IN LONDON

London, Jan. 11.—Mrs. Terence MacSwiney, widow of the late lord mayor of Cork, disembarked here from the Steamship Panhandle State, which arrived from New York. Only two or three friends greeted her at the quay. There was no demonstration. Mrs. MacSwiney intends to remain in England a few days and then proceed to Ireland.

BELIEVES PRESENT TIME TO RESTRICT NAVAL ARMAMENTS

U. S. Should Have the Greatest Navy in World

IF NO AGREEMENT IS REACHED

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The present time was described as ripe for a movement toward limitation of naval armaments by international agreement by Secretary Daniels of the navy, and acting Secretaries Davis of the state department, in testimony today before House naval affairs committee.

Secretary Daniels declared that in his opinion the move might properly be made by President-elect Harding, who, he said, could “call and hold an international disarmament conference within two months after his inauguration. Mr. Harding as president, the secretary pointed out, would have complete authorization to call such a conference under the provisions of the 1916 naval appropriation act.

Secretary Davis told the committee that President Wilson had not called such a conference because the president felt such action would embarrass the incoming administration. Mr. Wilson did not use the powers granted him in 1916 act at the close of the world war, Mr. Daniels added, because he thought the participation by the United States in the league of nations would bring about the desired result. The committee was urged by Mr. Daniels to authorize continuance of the uncompleted portion of the 1916 three-year naval building program until an international agreement of some kind was reached. He asserted that if no such agreement could be obtained from the powers, the United States should build the “greatest navy in the world.”

Asked by Chairman Butler if Great Britain's geographic situation did not entitle that nation to command of the seas, Mr. Daniels stated that he did not subscribe to this belief.

“The United States has the longest coast line,” said the naval secretary and has Alaska, Hawaii, Guam and the Philippines to protect as well as a moral obligation in South America under the Monroe doctrine. We are entitled to the largest navy in the world if there is no international agreement.

The pending Foran resolution proposing a 5 percent reduction in naval programs for the next five years, in the United States, Great Britain and Japan, was opposed by Mr. Daniels on the grounds that it would leave this country second in naval strength and did not take into consideration armed land forces.

Chairman Butler asked Mr. Daniels to present to the committee tomorrow data showing the naval construction and projected programs of Japan and Great Britain.

Asks What Others Are Doing. “I want to know what these nations are doing,” said the committee chairman. “All the world knows what the United States is doing. FINISH HEARINGS ON THE EMERGENCY TARIFF MEASURE

Many Amendments Waiting to be Tacked on Bill

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—Hearings on the Fordney emergency tariff bill were concluded by the senate finance committee tonight after another day of appeals either to be excluded or included, had opened up what supporters of the measure feared and opponents hoped would be the means of adding amendments to the bill as it passed the house.

Sensors McCumber, North Dakota, and LaFollette of Wisconsin Republican members of the committee announced they had statements to make relative to the subject matter of the tariff. These will be read at a session Thursday, when it was indicated several other senators would declare their attitude. Mr. McCumber's statement will concern the wheat duty, he said, and Mr. LaFollette said his would be with respect to cheese on which the bill provides no additional protection.

The close of the hearings brought indications of a concentration of effort among opponents of the bill and the turbulence with which some of them discussed the question was accepted to mean that they would go far in their fight against passage of the measure which is designed as an aid to farmers.

Many Amendments Pending

Already a dozen amendments are pending. Some of them, their sponsors openly assert, are intended to be facetious but for the direct purpose of taking up the time of the senate and if possible killing the bill. Senators Thomas of Colorado and Harrison of Mississippi, Democrats, said today they would seek to have the soldier bonus and immigration bills tacked on to the tariff measure as amendments. Another senator is reported, was preparing to introduce another amendment which would cause the bill to recodify the nations laws and to demand that this amendment be read. It is a document of sufficient length to keep reading clerks busy for two weeks.

Efforts also are being made on behalf of the sugar growers, dairy interests and other agricultural groups to have the bill broadened to include certain products omitted from the house bill. Representatives of dairy interests numbering more than a score appeared before the committee today, asked duties on imported fresh and condensed milk and butter.

KENYON WOULD HAVE LOBBYISTS REGISTER

Tell Who They Are and Who They Represent—Says There Has Been Big Increase in the Species.
(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—A law requiring lobbyists in Washington to register telling who they are and whom they represent was advocated today by Senator Kenyon, Republican, Iowa.

“Washington is crowded with lobbyists,” Senator Kenyon declared. “You can't get from your office to the senate unless some one stops you to talk about a big interests are lobbying.”

“Kansas has a law requiring lobbyists to register. We ought to have one here.”

Senator Walsh, Democrat, Massachusetts, said he would favor such a law.

“Recently there has been a great increase in lobbyists,” said he.

Senator Kenyon said he has been informed that one organization which he did not name spent $200,000 a year for lobbying in Washington.

SMITH-TOWNER BILL REPORTED

WASHINGTON, Jan. 11.—The Smith-Towner bill, long before congress providing for creation of a department of education with federal aid for the states in promoting education was reported today by the house education committee. As amended by the committee course of study and plans for carrying out the act in any state would be determined by state and local authorities; thus removing the objection by some organizations that the bill would centralize control of the schools by a federal department at Washington.

PROBLEM FACING COUNTRY IS THE IMMIGRANT WALLS

Says Immigrant is the One Who Founded Country

COPLEY BERATES EXCESS PROFITS TAX

(By The Associated Press)
CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—A plea by Frederick A. Wallis, commissioner of immigration of New York, for a hand-picked system of immigration which would bring to this country the desirable immigrant and exclude the undesirable, and an attack on the excess profits tax by Congressman Ira Coppley of Aurora, Ill., with an ultimate sales tax, recommended a substitute was made tonight in addresses before the Illinois Manufacturers' association.

Both speakers referred to Bolshevism in explaining their views. Mr. Wallis blaming “improper systems of immigration,” for deficiencies in some parts of the country, while Congressman Coppley placed the responsibility for radical acts on unjust taxation.

Mr. Wallis said in part: “Nothing affects more the political, economic and social conditions on this nation than the foreign-born and no problem is so great as that of the immigrant. He is the most vital, the most profoundly serious subject that confronts congress today. Our problem is the immigrant not immigration. The problem of the immigrant himself, both socially and economically, can only be met by a scientific selection. Intelligent distribution and broad assimilation.”

“Many fail to appreciate the country's need of the immigrant. He is thought of only as a foreigner, a keen competitor in the labor markets of this country.”

Immigrant Founded Country. “Little do we recognize the good immigrant who has done so much for the name. It was the immigrant who founded this country. Without him today the manufacturer could scarcely turn a wheel, our industrial activities would be wholly impotent.”

“There is room in the United States for all the good immigrants that facilities can bring, provided they are in sympathy with American ideals and are willing to work and become a corporate part of the United States. But we do need men and women whose first object it is to mount the soap box or public school platform and proclaim a new order wherein force and violence will give the laboring man more money and power.”

immigration is the absence of authority or system to send the consumer alien not only where he is most needed but where he would make the most money and find the most favorable living conditions. There are several places where for the present alien should not go, some places where he should go.

The problem in immigration is to see that no one gets into this country who should not get in and to see that no one is kept out who should get in.

Congressman Coppley said in part:

Blames It On The Tax. “The excess profits tax in its working out with all its pyramids, is absolutely indefensible. It is the prime cause of four of the greatest evils from which we now are suffering. First, it has been passed on to the consumer and increased the price of practically everything that enters into life, thereby increasing the cost of living, creating distrust, social unrest, and preparing the American mind for the Bolshevik doctrines so eagerly offered. Nearly every commodity goes thru from three to ten hands or processes before finally ready for the ultimate consumer. The excess profits tax is consequently pyramided until it is staggering to contemplate when it reaches the ultimate consumer.”

The second great wrong wrought by this tax is that it destroys initiative in this country. It holds the young man down if he goes into business himself all of his profits is swept away in taxes. The third great wrong is that it rivers monopoly on the people of the country. By the terms of the law it is possible for you men who have one or more extremely profitable enterprises, from which you are now paying a large proportion of the earnings

Evidently even with a utilities commission some companies do not have everything their own way. The Springfield Gas Co. has served notice upon the city that in the course of a few months, because of inability to agree with the city on franchise matters, that service will be discontinued. This incident furnishes argument both for and against the home rule proposal.

According to the U. S. tariff commission the U. S. production of dyes for 1919 was over 63,000,000 pounds, or "38 percent over pre-war imports." And the protective policy of the republican party will function well enough to continue the development, without resort to a dyestuffs commission of all too human bureaucrats to pass upon the needs and antecedents of consumers of dyes.

One farm organization has arranged for a series of moving pictures purposing to give the public a better knowledge of some farm difficulties and then to present some scenes of a different kind for purpose of popularizing farm life. This may be a beneficial scheme, but it is not merely so practical as some of the undertakings of the organized farm people.

The late F. W. Woolworth left an estate valued at something more than $28,000,000. The fortune that he accumulated furnishes significant proof of the value of small things—the possibility of making money thru small transactions. Mr. Woolworth began with practically no capital. He had the idea which became the basis of the 5 and 10 cent store and thru the years came his tremendous success. Money can be made with penny transactions if there are enough of them and these transactions are founded on a stable business basis.

THE HARVEST.

President Wilson's continued opposition to republican plans of two years ago for a program of reconstruction, and his equally stubborn refusal to permit a declaration of peace, are producing their bitter fruit. An Associated Press dispatch from Berlin declares that "American business scouts who have been scouting Germany in the past few months in search of contracts have virtually abandoned the field to the British and French and gone home. While exports and imports between the United States and Germany continue gradually to increase, the Americans say the majority of the big manufacturing and buying firms already have signed long-time contracts with the British and French."

Prior to the great war our import and export trade with Germany aggregated considerably over half a billion dollars annually, and Germany, next to Great Britain, was the greatest consumer of our raw cotton and copper. But now trade with Germany, as well as with the rest of the world, is being rapidly Wilsonized and the baleful influence of the college pedagogy will be felt in this country a generation hence.

The Knights of Columbus have given certain proof of their confidence in Herbert Hoover. The entire surplus of $5,000,000 in their war fund is to be turned over to him to help with the European relief work he is directing. Possibly Mr. Hoover's party affiliations are not very definitely outlined, but there is wide spread respect for his knowledge of European conditions and his practical ability to place relief funds where the most good can be accomplished.

HARD TO FIGURE

I know not why I always think a new year will be fine, and feel it will not put a kink in glowing plans of mine; or why a year seems on the blink when 'tis in its decline. "I've muddled things this year," I say, when I regard the past; "I've let my kopecks away like leaves upon the blast, but doubtless after New Year's Day improvement will be vast. The new year brings a change of luck to every human freak; my bank account the old year struck and made my coffers leak, but now I'll save a silver buck, and maybe two, each week." The new year has a magic touch, or so methinks, it seems; she is a vampire and as such she brings us hophead dreams, and ere she dies we get in Dutch, with all our burnished schemes. I know I simply can't be wise, my deeds are all mistakes, I travel with the bonehead guys whose high resolves are fakes; how then shall I to wisdom rise because a new year breaks. In folly I've grown old and gray, and in my Meated Grange I count great chances thrown away, and it is passing strange that I exclaim New Year's Day, "Now things will take a change!"

AGED WHITE HALL

RESIDENT IS DEAD

Mrs. William Tankersley Passed Away Tuesday Evening at Home of Daughter, Mrs. George North, After Brief Illness.

White Hall, Jan. 11.—Mrs. William Tankersley passed away at 5:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. George North, in White Hall, after an illness of about a week from pneumonia. The deceased was seventy-nine years of age at the time of her death and was widely known in Morgan and Scott counties.

Mrs. Tankersley prior to her marriage was Miss Martha Elizabeth Coultras of Scott county. She was united in marriage to William Tankersley in 1862, and has resided in White Hall continuously since that time. Mr. Tankersley died in August, 1918. They were the parents of eight daughters and two sons, all of whom survive: Mrs. Ross, Mrs. C. H. Davis, Mrs. George E. Hill, M. W. O. Tankersley, Mrs. L. G. Griswold, Mrs. Arthur McMahan, Mrs. Clarence Tinsion, Mrs. George North, and Mrs. Tankersley, all of White Hall; Mrs. James Norton of Beards-town and Kirby Tankersley of Manchester.

The deceased has been a member of the Methodist church for many years and her entire life was lived in a way to conform to the teachings of that denomination. She was devoted to home and family and many are the persons who can testify to her generosity and kindness.

No arrangements have yet been made for the funeral services.

FORMER RESIDENT

DIES IN CANADA

O. W. Rimby of Pisgah, yesterday received news of the death of Thomas Jefferson, eldest son of James Jefferson, Alberta, Canada. The boy passed away on Thursday, Jan. 6, after but a week's illness of pneumonia.

The Jefferson family left this country last September for Canada. Mr. Jefferson disposing of his store at Pisgah at that time. The family had many friends in the county, all of whom will regret to know of the untimely death of Thomas. The deceased was seventeen years of age and was an unusually bright and promising youth. Mrs. Jefferson died a number of years since and Mr. Jefferson and one son, George, are all that remain of the family.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

SOMETHING ABOUT OUR FIREMEN

By Ensley Moore

(Member Illinois State Historical Society)

It had been intended to tell the history of fire fighting in Jacksonville, but it could hardly be accomplished.

Jacksonville has had its experiences and adventures with the fire element, and its heroic fighters of the dread enemy.

A Remarkable Company.

The Illinois legislature of 1835 enacted a law for the incorporation of fire companies, which led up to the formation of an organization in this town in 1840.

In that year Morgan was the most populous county in the state, while Cook, the site of Chicago, stood about eighth in order as to its citizens. That year Chicago had less than 5,000 inhabitants, and was not much known of, Jacksonville had 1,900 people in it. But then, as always, they were active, enterprising and progressive. So it easily came that a fire company was gotten up which was very unusual in the proportion of fine and able men on its roll.

Notable Men

Were in the lot, one having afterwards been a Senator of the United States, another Member of Congress, a U. S. Marshal, several mayors, two judges, several town trustees, and aldermen, two post-masters, one sheriff, several county assessors or clerks, one U. S. consul-general, several trustees of state and educational institutions, one a militia colonel, another lieutenant-colonel in Mexico, and nearly all more or less prominent or valuable citizens. This list may well challenge that of any place of similar, or even larger size.

Equipment.

Of course, in that day of building up, of personal and municipal poverty it was not to be expected that the new venture would have a wonderful apparatus. But it did have a good, and very heavy engine, worked by hand, and called the "Union."

That machine was kept in service until about 1886, and no doubt, fully paid for itself.

The company also had several hundred feet of hose, buckets, ladders, axes and other necessary articles.

Many of the fellows who manned the brakes became leading business men, bankers and manufacturers here and elsewhere. At last one being a great leader in St. Louis, going finally to Chicago.

Not one of the "boys" is known to survive, although many lived to good old age.

To the roll call the following should respond: James Berdan, J. Collins, J. B. Stone, A. V.

Phil A. Auer, assistant general passenger agent of the Rock Island was a visitor in Jacksonville yesterday, on business with D. C. Diltz, agent for the Chicago & Alton. Mr. Diltz years ago was with the Rock Island and his friendship with Mr. Auer began at that time.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express to friends our sincere appreciation of the many kindnesses shown to us at the time of our sudden sorrow. We appreciate the flowers sent and the other evidences of sympathy.

Mrs. Albert Riggs and Family.

Pauline Frederick

A Slave of Vanity

From the play "IRIS" by Sir Arthur Wing Pinero

A beautiful woman, carried by her love of luxury to the brink of ruin, battles for simpler, happier days through scenes of tremendous force—scenes which give the screen a new Frederick rising gloriously above her achievements of the past. A great stage success. Can marriage always make amends? She could not marry him without losing her fortune—and Scandal's lying tongue was working. America's foremost emotional screen actress in one of the most dramatic vehicles of her career. How a woman about to sacrifice herself for the luxuries to which she has been accustomed all her life suddenly sees herself as a selfish parasite and chooses the harder but better way. How a woman is forced to choose between riches as the wife of a man she does not love, and poverty and struggle with the man of her choice. A glimpse of the life of artists in an Italian pension. Pauline Frederick in some of the most exquisite and expensive gowns ever worn by a star in a screen production. A production which will interest the student of art as well as the lover of drama.

Y. M. C. A. Notes

READ WHAT HAPPENED TO Emporia, Kansas. It might be possible for something similar to happen to Jacksonville.
A Kansas Editorial. William Allen White says the Campaign began a brand new Emporia.
The Eldorado chamber of commerce has approved a campaign for a Y. M. C. A. building in that town. It's the smartest thing the town ever did. No other investment Emporia ever made has paid as well as its Y. M. C. A. building. Every night the building is filled with boys and young men; dinners are held there three or four nights of the week by various organizations. Meetings of various civic organizations are held there. All kinds of town planning is done at the Y. M. C. A. building. The county fair used to be held in the big gymnasium before we got a better place.
But these things are unimportant. The important thing is that in raising the money to build the Y. M. C. A., the town got together fast and hard, and acquired the giving spirit in fellowship. The Y. M. C. A., campaign was the beginning of a brand new Emporia. From that a dozen bigger, better things have sprung. The Y. M. C. A., campaign was the dawning of the whole lot—Editorial Emporia Gazette.

IN THE 72ND Father and Son dinners promoted by the Minneapolis Association was attended by 7,500 boys and men. This led to scores of interviews with parents.

OUR CHURCHES In Jacksonville have agreed to observe the Father and Son week beginning with February 6th. A committee is appointed to work out the plans.

NEW AGREEMENT IS APPROVED BY MINOR LEAGUES

Vote to Place Organization Under Judge Landis

MAJORS MEET MINORS HALF WAY

By Associated Press. CHICAGO, Jan. 11.—Organized baseball in the United States today virtually virtually brought under control of Federal Judge Kenesaw M. Landis for at least seven years when the drafting committee of the National Association of Minor Leagues officially voted approval of the new national agreement already accepted by the two major league committees, which creates the office of a baseball commissioner with supreme powers and with Judge Landis as the first incumbent. All that remains to put the agreement into effect is the official approval of the various league representatives as a whole which will probably be given tomorrow. Baseball men tonight said the presentation of the agreement to the club owners tomorrow would be a mere formality and that the action of the drafting committees virtually constituted formal acceptance by all the parties concerned.

Majors Concede Demands. The minor leaguers, reported a few weeks ago to be decidedly hostile to the new agreement on the ground that it would not give them a fair deal today found the majors ready to concede the demands made by the smaller circuits. Expressing themselves as satisfied with Judge Landis as baseball commissioner the minor leaguers were doubtful as to whether a man agreeable to them would be chosen when Judge Landis' term expired, but this matter was quickly settled by the proposition from the majors that the minor sign the agreement for only seven years—the term of Judge Landis' contract. At the end of that time, if a new commissioner is chosen, either a man who meets with the approval of the minors must be chosen or they may withdraw from the agreement.

The advisory board provided in the agreement to settle baseball disputes will contain two minor league representatives under the new agreement the other two members to be the presidents of the National and of the American leagues. When this board is unable to settle any dispute, the case will go before Judge Landis as baseball commissioner and his decision will be final.

To Select Representatives. The minor league representatives will be selected tomorrow. The minor league representatives, at their meeting today voted to restore the draft but made reservations to the restoration which does not make it compulsory. Any league so desiring may remain out of the draft. The American Association and the New International league announced their intention of not taking part in it. Leagues which do not take part in the draft will not be permitted to draft players from leagues which do go in but may draft from each other.

The Pacific Coast league, the only other class AA organization will take part in the draft. A draft price of $5,000 for Class AA leagues will prevail as recently suggested by major league representatives. Many of the minor leagues thought $7,500 should be the price.

Establish Salary Limit. The minor leagues also established a new scale of player and salary limits.

The annual meeting of the association will be held the first Tuesday in December hereafter and must take place in a city represented in the association.

Besides acting on the new national agreement tomorrow and selecting its advisory board members, the association expects to take action concerning five minor league players who were alleged to have played ball on the Pacific Coast this winter with Fred McMullin, Chicago White Sox player indicted for alleged complicity in throwing games in the 1919 world series.

The sale of Pitcher Newton of Baltimore to Birmingham and of Sargent of Buffalo to Detroit were announced.

PROBLEM FACING COUNTRY IS THE IMMIGRANT-WALLIS

(Continued from Page 1) to the government as excess profits tax to organize still another and lose money in it this one, while driving out of the field all competitors who have no other source of income.

Extravagance Jag Nearly Over. "The fourth and most vicious evil has been to result in the orgy of extravagance which demoralized the country. This jag is almost over, thank Heaven. "A remedy for our tax troubles is an ultimate or final sales tax. This has its advantages, as has any system of taxation, but its disadvantages are fewer than in any other system. In this way there will be one tax and the consumer will know where and when it is paid. There would be no pyramiding. My personal opinion is that the government should at the earliest possible time also issue one general bond to provide for the conversion of all forms of indebtedness into this bond, allow ourselves fifty years or more to pay it, have a provision that we shall retire no bonds before the end of three or five years. After that retire a certain definite percentage each year by lot and make it the duty of the secretary of the treasury himself to ease the lot as an assurance of good faith. With such a definite and fixed policy it is certain that the securities of this country could be made to sell at par."

OMAHA, Neb., Jan. 11.—Elimination of the middleman was urged by A. C. Bank Spirit

The foundation upon which "Bank Spirit" must be built, if it is to be a sound and lasting thing, is the foundation of the fair deal. It is an old principle, but one which must be newly applied and constantly woven into the fabric of an organization.

This Bank so genuinely believes in the truth of this principle, and has in the past made so great an effort to make it a part of its every day life, that it believes even the caller upon casual matters cannot but notice in every department, that spirit of readiness, helpfulness and fairness, which makes true "Bank Spirit."

Matters of great importance may take longer study, require more consideration than the routine business detail, but it is the application of "Bank Spirit" to routine affairs which largely indicates what may be expected in problems of considerable moment.

Sherman Spencer who had the contract for building the sewer in Alley D between the Old Fellows and Elms Brothers buildings, is completing his work. Mr. Spencer was engaged yesterday in building the manhole and when this is done the job will be ready to turn over to the city. Owing to rains and other bad weather conditions Mr. Spencer has had difficulty in carrying on the work, being handicapped several times by the walls of the trench caving in.

COUNCIL PASSES
TAX LEVY ORDINANCE

The city council at an adjourned session held Tuesday evening passed the tax levy ordinance for the year of 1921. The levy carries a total of $875,000 for general corporate purposes. However, the actual amount the city will receive will be about $70,000.

All members were present at the session with Mayor Crabtree presiding. Following the passage of the ordinance J. H. Campbell spoke briefly, urging strict economy. Mr. Campbell told the council that he believed it an injustice to levy an oil tax as people who had paid for pavements were compelled to pay a part of the cost.

Mayor Crabtree told Mr. Campbell that the council has practiced the strictest economy in the matter of expenditures. He emphasized the fact that several cities had much higher tax rates than Jacksonville and that any city that progressed the citizens must pay the bill.

FIREMEN WITNESSED
ATHLETIC BOUTS

Visiting delegates to the firemen's association and a great many local residents were spectators at the athletic meet which was staged at the H. Z. Auto Inn Tuesday night, as a feature of the convention program. Bud Burns of Edwardsville was match of against Young Paul Moore of Decatur in a boxing contest. It ran four rounds when Burns gave his antagonist a knockout blow. Frank Nelson of Granite City was the referee and the timekeepers were Simon Kellerman, Third and Joseph Agles of Edwardsville.

The platform was then reconstructed for a wrestling match between Lloyd Card, middle-weight champion of Missouri and Albert Johnson of Chicago. F. P. Rley of Edwardsville was the referee. The contest was two out of three and Carter was the winner after stubborn defense by the Chicago man, who was considerably under the weight of the Missouri champion. These two events brought to a close the very successful program of the day.

MUSICAL REVUE

A full house greeted George White's "Scandals of 1919" at the Grand Opera house Tuesday night. This modern musical revue has had a long run at the Illinois theatre in Chicago and has also scored successfully in other big cities. There are two acts with seven or eight scenes and it goes without saying that there is only enough of a plot to provide for the introduction of specialties and the songs and dances.

Members of the chorus are brightly and the revue moves along from curtain to curtain in a very satisfactory way. Some of the dancing specialties are even better than the music.

Mr. White, it is said, who is a co-author of the book and lyrics, purposes to make the Scandals a yearly theatrical event, following something of the lines of the Zigfield Follies which are now nationally known.

EXHIBITION OF OIL PAINTINGS

The exhibition of oil paintings from the American Federation of Arts in Washington, D. C., will be held Friday evening from 7 to 10 o'clock in the David Strawn Art Home, 331 West College avenue.

From the sturdy Dan Stevens, the light house keeper to the dainty little sunbeam every painting is of unusual interest. Fatherhood by Marion Boyd Allen is perhaps the most winning and pleasing painting ever hung upon these walls, 49 by 50 inches, $1,000, and the light across the Sea, by William Ritschel, 36 by 52, $2,500.

These paintings would be most desirable for the Elks to place upon the walls of their new home. These, however, are only two of the many splendid canvases. All are cordially invited to this exhibition.

Carl E. Robinson and J. E. Osborne attended the Riggs funeral at Murrayville Monday.

WARD OFF CROUP AND COLDS

Mothers with colds liable to croup should take steps to prevent attacks of this distressing ailment. At bedtime if Turpo is applied over the neck and chest, and a little placed up the nostrils, the little ones will sleep soundly and breathe easily. Turpo keeps the air passages clear and antiseptic, and reduces any congestion.

Turpo is the recognized treatment for all colds and congestion. It is made of the old-fashioned and reliable remedies, distilled Turpentine, Camphor and Menthol, skillfully combined in a clear mineral base. It will not stain or blister and produces more immediate relief than any indefinite vapor treatment or cough mixture.

Its worth is proven by the fact that over 150,000 jars are sold every year. Careful mothers everywhere keep a jar of Turpo as a staple article in the home. Doctors recommend Turpo and druggists sell it on a guarantee of money back if not satisfactory.

Sold in white opal jars with the orange and black label at 20c and 60c.

Interesting Figures Among Firemen at State Convention

W. D. Boehm, member of the executive board of the Illinois Firemen's association and chief of the Sterling fire department, was born at Sterling, Ill., on April 10, 1878. He joined the Sterling department as a volunteer on May 1, 1898, and before being selected as chief of this live department was captain and later assistant chief. He has been a member of many of the important committees of the Illinois association and is regular in his attendance at the annual conventions. Before following the position of a fireman he was an electrical contractor.

Otto Sorgenfrei, while Mr. Sorgenfrei has always been active as a fireman, his activities are by no means confined to the fighting of fires. He is also an active hard road booster and is prominent in the various organizations for the betterment of the public roads.

Despite his prominence in the firemen's councils there is no pretension about Otto Sorgenfrei. He is emphatically a plain man whom any or all may approach. He is also known as a man actuated by the real charity which forbids him to speak ill of any one if he can speak no good. One meeting him feels instinctively that he may be ready in any emergency as well as in the everyday happenings of life.

In the promotion of the National association Otto Sorgenfrei has always been more active and no one is more pleased than he at the successful outcome of the Mutual Insurance feature of that organization. Mr. Sorgenfrei has served as president of the Illinois firemen's association for three terms and has also acted in the same position in the National Firemen's association.

TALK ON FIRST AID

The following interesting address was made Tuesday afternoon by Dr. Siegel, of Collinsville, on "First Aid," before the Firemen's Convention:

In the following brief notes, I shall endeavor to present to you men of the "Hose and Nozzle" the ways and means of relieving the burned and those overcome by smoke and other gases.

Always remembering that this paper refers to first aid only.

Burns are caused by heat, either dry or moist, and roughly classified into three divisions as follows: Burns of the first degree are superficial burns which only redden the skin; second degree, cause a blister to form; third degree or more, destroys the skin and underlying muscles.

STRONG MEN HAVE ACID STOMACH

And They Relieve It With Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. Instead of Senseless Diet Consider the bulk of a big man. He needs a lot of good food. And yet a simple dish may so distress him that he will throw his entire machinery out of order by denying himself the very means of sustaining strength. A better plan, far better, is to follow a meal with a Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablet. It aids digestion, supplies the stomach with an alkaline effect and thus prevents or relieves the distresses of gasiness, sour stomach, lumpy feeling in throat, biliousness, intestinal indigestion and other such misery due to dyspepsia. Official Emblems

Just now many young men are taking a right and important step in their lives—uniting with some one of the several grand fraternal orders represented in our city.

True Fraternity as taught by these orders is a wonderful lesson to the young man just emerging on manhood.

These various organizations have official emblems, made up in dainty form, in the shape of stick pins, rings and cuff links, serving a useful as well as distinguishing mark—an identification.

Our stock is replete with suitable official emblems of which we invite your inspection and approval.

Bassett's Sellers of Gem Gem Stones

What Happened?

Loose pistons and rings cause loss of power and poor lubrication.

Loss of power makes extravagant and unsatisfactory operation.

Poor lubrication will eventually ruin beyond repair every working part of the motor.

The cylinder bore of a gas motor wears unevenly. Why?

- 1—Due to ring pressure;
- 2—Due to expansion and contraction;
- 3—Due to hard and soft spots in metal.
- 4—Due to uneven pressure of pistons.

The more the year, the more the tendency to wear.

The cost of grinding the cylinder walls smooth and straight is less than making them smooth and straight any other way.

Over-size pistons cost no more than standard size.

We will grind your block and fit over-size pistons if it needs it. This latter can only be determined after careful measurements.

ADVOCATE BUSINESS METHODS FOR CHURCH

Such Methods Will Boon Ordinary Church Is Opinion of Officials of Campbell Park Presbyterian Church of Chicago.

Chicago.—(By The Associated Press.)—Business methods will boom the ordinary church and mean the saving of its life in the opinion of officials of the Campbell Park Presbyterian church of Chicago. They base their assertion upon a two-year experiment with their own church during which time the weekly attendance grew from 200 to 1000 and changed a building which was "dark as a tomb nearly all the time" to a "bee hive of activity."

"Two years ago our church was dying," said F. S. Miller, an elder, in a report of the experiment, "and today it is booming because of the revolution in the methods we employed. Twenty years ago the neighborhood was one of the wealthiest and most fashionable in the city. Then the population movements, peculiar to great cities commenced. The American born families flocked to the suburbs and thousands of Italians, Jews, Bohemians, Lithuanians and others poured in."

"The congregations became smaller; the church was nearly deserted and was dark as a tomb nearly all the time. Then we decided to hire a business manager, map out a program and try once more before we quit. Today the church is a beehive of activity. Congregations have trebled. Mr. Miller said, the Sunday school doubled, athletic clubs for boys and sewing clubs for girls are carried on, a public library opened and a daily vacation summer school held, with a dozen nationalities enrolled."

"The application of business principles to church work means saving the life of the ordinary church," the pastor, Rev. William F. McDermott declared today. "The church is at a crisis and it doesn't adopt efficiency and system, as well as prayer and giving it will fail. It is merely applying intelligence and system in a field where for too long aimless, slipshod methods have been in order, while the crying need has been for well-planned, far-seeing, aggressive campaigns."

MAKE SURVEY OF PARK SITES IN ILLINOIS

With View Toward Developing More Parks in the State—State Has Only Considerable Natural Area Set Aside as State Park.

DES MOINES, Ia., Jan. 11.—A careful survey of the park sites of Illinois, with a view toward developing more parks in the state, especially along the Missouri and Iowa borders, has recently been made, according to Professor G. Cowles, of the University of Chicago, in an address before the first national conference of parks here today.

"Up to the present time the state of Illinois, with all its population, wealth, and boundless opportunity, has but one considerable natural area set aside as a state park," said Professor Cowles. "This area is one of great historic interest and scenic beauty, and is known as the Starved Rock State Park. In respect to state park development, Illinois, which is accustomed to be a leader among the states, is obliged to step aside and yield the palm of leadership to such states as Iowa, Connecticut, New York and Wisconsin."

"It is hoped that not long will Illinois remain in the background in this matter. While not so well provided by nature with areas for natural preserves as are some of her sister states, there is the greater reason for saving what are left, thus emulating Iowa, which was less favored by nature than Illinois."

"There still remain areas of natural beauty suitable for state parks in various parts of the state. With the increasing tendency of city people to go to the country for study, rest, and recreation, it is fitting that every state should provide places where all may go for these purposes. And the country people also are becoming more and more inclined to enjoy the natural world about them."

"The Friends of Native Landscapes of Illinois, an organization of nature-lovers, is so impressed with the importance of developing more state parks that they have made a careful survey of the various parts of the state. As a result of this survey they recommend the establishment of several state parks, scattered through the state, so that there will be a natural preserve near every center of population, and in every part of the state. It is believed that the best results will be obtained if these parks in general have an area in each instance of a thousand acres or more."

"It is scarcely fitting in this place to specify in any detail where these parks should be, but a few general suggestions may not be out of place. The Friends of Native Landscapes survey committee feel that one or more parks should be established in southern Illinois, because in that section there is the wildest and most rugged scenery of the state, and because there the pioneers of Illinois first became established. Along the Mississippi are many places suited for state parks or for interstate parks with Iowa and Missouri."

OHIO NATIONAL GUARD PREPARES FOR INAUGURAL

Cleveland, O.—Troop A of the Ohio National Guard and the Cleveland Grays are preparing for the inaugural parade of Warren G. Harding, Ohio's last president. Troop A has escorted every president elected from Ohio since and including Rutherford B. Hayes, while the Grays boast of having escorted President William Meigs to Cleveland eighty years ago and since then Presidents Garfield, Benjamin Harrison and Roosevelt. Troop A is a cavalry and the Grays infantry.

The Grays' plans include the presence in the marching line of Col. F. W. Galbraith, national commander of the American Legion.

SIMPLE WAY TO GET RID OF BLACKHEADS

There is one simple, safe and sure way that never fails to get rid of blackheads and that is to dissolve them.

To do this get two ounces of calomel powder from any drug store—sprinkle a little on a hot, wet sponge—rub over the blackheads briskly—wash the parts and you will be surprised how the blackheads have disappeared. Big blackheads, little blackheads, no matter where they are, simply dissolve and disappear, leaving the parts without any mark whatever. Blackheads are simply a mixture of dust and dirt and secretions from the body that form in the pores of the skin. Pinching and squeezing only cause irritation, make large pores and do not get them out after they become hard. The calomel powder and the water simply dissolve the blackheads so they wash right out, leaving the pores free and clean again in their natural condition. Anybody troubled with these unsightly blemishes should certainly try this simple method.

What is

MOTHER'S FRIEND

Simply and tersely stated, MOTHER'S FRIEND is just exactly what the name implies—a friend and help to mothers.

It has been made and sold for more than half a century. If it did not possess the value claimed for it, MOTHER'S FRIEND could not possibly have remained on the market. For only that which is really worth while and beneficial can survive.

The mothers who appreciate MOTHER'S FRIEND the most, and who are loudest in their praise of it, are those who unfortunately did not use it with their first baby, and who, through its use with the second one, were able to fully realize the relief it gave them.

DIDN'T EVEN NEED THE DOCTOR

"Dear Sirs: I am willing and anxious to tell any mother about MOTHER'S FRIEND. It did me so much good that I wouldn't be without it if it cost $5.00 a bottle. With my first two children I had a doctor and a nurse and then they had to use instruments, but with my last two children I only had a nurse; we had no time to get a doctor because I wasn't very sick and only sick about ten or fifteen minutes. "Any mother can write me and I will only be too glad to give her advice. Yours truly,"

CONFERENCE WILL NOT BE HELD IN WHITE HALL

White Hall, January 10.—The congregation of the First Baptist church today voted against extending an invitation to the mid-year conference of the Greene-Jersey Baptist association. A program had been prepared and a date set for the conference to be held at White Hall, and the decision of the local congregation grew out of the objection to making the financial campaign of the Inter-Church World movement the keynote of the program in face of the original objections by the local pastor, Rev. O. A. Carman, to the introduction of the world movement into the program of the conference. However, the program was drafted and the date arranged without further conference with the local pastor, and this has resulted in the First Baptist congregation refusing to extend an invitation. The gathering is to be held in February, and it is not now known where it will take place.

MACHINIST FORCED TO STOP WORK FOR YEAR

Illinois Man Gains Forty-five Pounds Taking Tanlac and is Back on Job Feeling Fine—His Stomach and Nerves in Splendid Shape Now

"I had been unable to work for a year and had lost forty pounds in weight, but it's a fact, I have gained it all back, and five pounds besides, on ten bottles of Tanlac and am back on my job once more." This remarkable statement was made recently by John Welch, of 406 Eighth Street, Moine, Ill., a machinist in the employ of the John Deere company. "I claim that I have put in my share of suffering if any man ever did. My stomach, kidneys, nerves and back bothered me in one way and another just about every minute of the day, and I had reached the point where I considered my case hopeless. I gave up my job a year ago and lost so much weight and was so weak that I wasn't able to even sit up all day. It looked like I couldn't digest a bite of anything and gas formed so bad that I felt bloated and miserable all the time. "I had pains all through my chest, my back ached so bad it nearly set me wild and I couldn't sleep night or day. My nerves were all on edge, and I just seemed that everything was wrong with me. I went down hill until I weighed only one hundred pounds and got so bad I didn't believe I could live.

"Well, sir, I have seen some strange and remarkable things in this world, but I can honestly say I have never yet seen anything to beat the way this medicine has restored my health. I weigh one hundred and forty-five pounds, five pounds more than I ever weighed in my life and it's a fact, when my friends first saw me after I got able to get out, they hardly recognized me. Every symptom of my old troubles has disappeared, and I feel as fine as I did the best day of my life. I eat like a bear, sleep fine and have been back at work for some time. Every word I've said is true and if anybody doubts it, my address is 406 Eighth Street, Moine, Illinois; they can write me or come to see me personally."

Tanlac is sold in Jacksonville by J. F. Shreve, Wyle Drug Co., Franklin and Waverly and leading drug store in every city.

1920 INCOME TAX FACTS YOU SHOULD KNOW.

Thousands of letters passed in correspondence last year between the Bureau of Internal Revenue and persons claiming an exemption of $2,000 as head of a family. Circumstances surrounding each individual case determine largely whether a person is entitled to such exemption. The fixing of his status decides, in many instances, whether his income is taxable or nontaxable. In either event, if his net income for 1920 was $1,000 or more if single, and $2,000 or more if married, he must file a return.

A head of a family is defined by Treasury regulations as "a person who actually supports and maintains in one household one or more individuals who are closely connected with him by blood relationship, relationship by marriage or by adoption, or whose right to exercise family control and provide for these dependents is based upon some moral or legal obligation." A married person living with husband or wife, in addition to the $2,000 exemption allowed such person, can not claim a $2,000 exemption as the head of a family, irrespective of the question of the support of others of the household.

Single Persons. A single person—the term including widows, widowers, and persons not living with wife or husband—is the head of a family if he is the sole support of one or more relatives living in the same household with him, and if he exercises control of household affairs. The $1,000 additional exemption allowed a single person as the head of a family can not be divided between two members of a household. A division of responsibility for "control of household affairs" excludes both parties from the claim. Whether a person who does not continuously live in the same house with dependent relatives is entitled to the $2,000 exemption depends upon the character of the separation. If a parent is absent on business part of the year, or a child or other dependent away at school or on a visit, the common home being maintained, the exemption applies. If a parent is compelled to maintain his dependent children with relatives or in a boarding house, the exemption may still apply. If, however, the dependent continuously and without necessity makes his home elsewhere than with his benefactor, the latter is not the head of family, irrespective of the question of support.

A taxpayer may not be the head of a family and still be allowed an exemption of $20 for each person dependent upon him for chief support if such person is under 18 years of age or incapable of self-support because mentally or physically defective. The words "physically defective" refer not only to cripples, but to persons defective because of old age or ill health. Neither residence, relationship, nor legal dependency are factors in determining the right of the taxpayer to such exemption. To establish his claim, the taxpayer must have contributed during the year more than one-half of the sum needed for the dependent's support.

Allowable Exemptions. The following are concrete examples of circumstances which govern the exemptions allowed the head of a family and for dependents.

A son who has left home sends his mother more than half the sum required for her support. He is allowed an exemption of $200, unless the mother is able to support herself, in which case the contribution is regarded as a gift. A son living at home supports an invalid mother in the same household. He is allowed a deduction of $2,000 as the head of a family, plus an additional $20 for his dependent, who is physically incapacitated. (It should be noted that the $200 additional exemption for dependents does not apply to husband or wife, even though either one has become a total burden upon the other.) A single man lives with and supports a mother 50 years of age and two sisters 19 and 21 years of age, all in good health. His exemption is $2,000 as the head of family. Since his mother and sisters are neither under 18 years of age nor mentally or physically incapacitated, he can not claim an additional exemption for dependents.

A widower is the entire support of a child under 18 years of age.

but otherwise neglects it. His exemption is $1,200. He is not the head of a family and is entitled only to the $200 for a dependent.

BOND ISSUE IS OVERSUBSCRIBED

Omaha, Neb., Jan. 10.—Within a few hours after the bond market opened today a $30,000,000 bond issue of the Northwestern Bell Telephone company offered for sale by J. P. Morgan & Co., of New York had been oversubscribed according to the Petters Trust company of Omaha, one of the local agents.

W. B. T. Belt, president of the telephone concern said funds realized from the sale would be devoted to refunding the company's present indebtedness bonds and consolidating them into one first mortgage issue. The company was organized recently to merge Bell companies of Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota and the Dakotas into one management with headquarters here.
